Question 3: (True or False) Comprehension:

Use the information in the passage to answer the questions below.

Crash

What is it like to be Crash Coogan? You might think you know him already – the big jock, star of the football team. Huge shoulders, smallish brain. Basically, mows down everything in his path, including kids like Penn Webb, the dweeby, puny, button-wearing vegetable-eater who moved onto Crash's block when they were little---and has been a prime target ever since.

But there's more to Crash than the touchdown-scoring kid every 7th grader sees. And it's not the predictable sob story that's supposed to make you feel sorry for the poor bully. It's the story of a kid with overworked parents, an ecology-minded smart-aleck little sister, and a best buddy named Mike Deluca, who helps Crash pull off hilarious pranks at Webb's expense.

Until one day Mike goes too far, maybe even for Crash, and the football hero has to choose which side he's really on.

From Questions below shade in the letter Ⓟ if the statement is True or Ⓡ if the statement is False, for every question.

1. Crash is the big jock, star of the football team.	T	F
2. In the second line the word mows mean “to cut or to cause to fall”.	T	F
3. Penn Webb is the prime target of Crash.	T	F
4. Crash is in the 9th grade.	T	F
5. Mike Deluca is Crash’s enemy.	T	F
6. Mike Deluca, who helps Crash pull off hilarious pranks at Webb's expense.	T	F
7. It's the story of a kid with overworked parents	T	F

Use the information in the passage to answer the ### questions below.

Crash

My real name is John, John Coogan. But everybody calls me Crash, even my parents. It started way back when I got my first football helmet as a gift. I don't really remember this happening but they say that when my uncle Herm's family came over to see our presents, as they were coming through the door, I got down into a four-point stance, growled, Hut! Hut! Hut! And charged ahead with my brand-new helmet. Seems I knocked my cousin Bridget clear back out the door way and onto her butt into a foot of snow they say she bawled and refused to come into the house. So, uncle Herm finally had to drag his whole family away before they even had a chance to take their coats off.

Like I said personally I don't remember the whole thing but looking back at what I do remember about myself I have to say the story is probably true as far as I can tell I have always been crashing into people, into things, you name it with or without a helmet.

From Questions below shade in the letter (T) if the statement is True or (F) if the statement is False, for every question.

1. It started way back when Crash got his third football helmet for as a gift.	T	F
2. My real name is Crash. But everybody calls me John Coogan.	T	F
3. As Uncle Herm's family was coming through the door, I got down into a four-point stance.	T	F
4. So uncle Herm finally had to drag his whole family away before they even had a chance to take their coats off.	T	F
5. John Coogan has never crashed into people, into things; you name it with or without a helmet.	T	F
6. She bawled and refused to come into the house. The pronoun refers to Crash's mother.	T	F
7. In the 12 th line the word crashing mean "rolling".	T	F

Summer Camp

Today was my first day at summer camp! I had a lot of fun. I had to wake up very early. My dad dropped me off at the park, and I met my counselor. Her name was Jamie. There were nine other people in my group.

The first thing that we did was go on a nature hike. The hike was long. We walked through the entire park. I saw two squirrels and a rabbit. I was afraid that I was going to see a snake. It was hot, and I got a lot of bug bites.

After the hike, we had arts and crafts. I made a bookmark to take home with me. I colored it blue and used a lot of glitters.

After arts and crafts, we played my favorite game!
